Topic – Nutanix

Brett Murphy will be presenting an overview of Nutanix. Come and find out what the buzz is all about.

Nutanix can simplify IT management of datacenter and applications and helps eliminate the need for specialized IT teams. It utilizes an advanced machine learning technology that can reduce complex tasks to a single click.

Nutanix has a full cloud stack that can integrate all compute, storage, and virtualization resources to run nearly any application.

Brett is an Executive Architect with Ciber, Inc. He is an IBM Champion and specializes in IBM Power Systems.

Looking Forward - Here are the topics that we plan to cover for the next few months:

September 20, 2018 - IBM Watson

October 18, 2018 - Modernization Lab

November 15, 2018 - Modernization for Mobile Devices
