Topic - Easily deploy Business Analytics (BA/BI) on your "400", SQL Server, Oracle & other environments

Gain insight to increase staff efficiency, new market opportunities and gain a competitive edge using the voluminous data created each day in your business.

Who wouldn't want to do this, but where to start? What is involved? How difficult and how much?

Not every business has or wants to hire a dedicated Analytics team. IBM i users have an excellent option with DB2 Web Query. Windows and Linux users have the majority of options.

We will review a few of these options which include a demo of a product showing ease of installation, configuration and use for IBM i, Windows, Linux and Unix environments.

Speaker – Brett Murphy

Brett Murphy is an Executive Architect with Ciber, Inc. He is an IBM Champion and specializes in IBM Power Systems.
